

MISSOURI PRESERVATION

Preserving Place And Community For Future Generations

2019 Statewide Preservation Honor Awards CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The annual Missouri Preservation Honor Awards recognize individuals, groups, and organizations that have contributed to the preservation of Missouri's rich and diverse collection of historic resources. Help us recognize someone in your community.

The awards will be presented in a special ceremony held at the Missouri State Capitol. The event includes a formal awards ceremony in the Capitol Rotunda, followed by a reception for attendees. Missouri legislators will be on hand to help present the awards and to gain firsthand knowledge of the important role historic resources play in all areas of the state.

The Awards

The Rozier Award

Named in honor of Elizabeth McReynolds Rozier, one of the founding members of Missouri Preservation and a noted Jefferson City Preservationist, the Rozier Award was established to recognize individuals who have made significant achievements in the field of historic preservation in Missouri. This is Missouri Preservation's most prestigious annual award.

The McReynolds Awards

The McReynolds Awards, also named in honor of Elizabeth McReynolds Rozier, are given annually to individuals or groups who have made significant achievements in the field or are in the midst of a long-term preservation project. The McReynolds awards are among the most important awards given out each year by the organization.

Osmund Overby Award

The Overby Award was established in 2003 to recognize published works that contribute to the documentation and interpretation of Missouri's architectural history and honors Dr. Osmund Overby, Art History Professor Emeritus and former head of the historic preservation program at the University of Missouri, Columbia. Dr. Overby was a nationally recognized leader in historic preservation and one of the founding members of Missouri Preservation.
