Missouri Preservation Announces 2024 Honor Award Recipients

Non-profit organization the Missouri Alliance for Historic Preservation (Missouri Preservation) announces their 2024 list of Honor Award recipients.

April 23, 2024

On Tuesday, April 23, 2024 the Missouri Alliance for Historic Preservation (Missouri Preservation) presented its 2024 Honor Awards at a ceremony in Jefferson City in the Capitol first floor rotunda. A luncheon reception followed at the Millbottom Event Center.

This is the 44th annual Honor Awards held by Missouri Preservation. The Awards recognize people and projects that have advanced the field of Historic Preservation in Missouri. This year eleven recipients were recognized for their contributions, including individual building projects, long-term preservation initiatives, published works, and lifetime achievements.

About Missouri Preservation

Founded in 1976 as the Missouri Heritage Trust, Missouri Preservation has evolved into a respected grassroots network of individuals, organizations, and preservation commissions throughout Missouri. Missouri Preservation advocates for, educates about, and assists in the preservation of architectural and historic landmarks that embody Missouri's unique heritage and sense of place.

This year's award recipients are:

The Rozier Award

Named in honor of Elizabeth McReynolds Rozier, one of the founding members of Missouri Preservation and a noted Jefferson City Preservationist, the Rozier Award was established to recognize individuals who have made significant achievements in the field of historic preservation in Missouri. This is Missouri Preservation's most prestigious annual award.

Jesse Francis

O'Fallon, St. Charles County

Osmund Overby Award

The Overby Award was established to recognize published works that contribute to the documentation and interpretation of Missouri's architectural history. It honors Dr. Osmund

Overby, Art History Professor Emeritus and former head of the historic preservation program at the University of Missouri, Columbia. Dr. Overby was a founding member of Missouri Preservation, lifetime board and advisory member and a nationally recognized leader in historic preservation.
